

MADAHS (Honors in Clinical Study)-II (Correspondence) Sem-10 (10 Days)

Salient Features and objective of Course

1. Classes based on newly developed YNM concept.
2. Classes focused on making self-reliant therapist so that they could diagnose and treat at their clinics independently.
3. Classes focused on Treatment procedure based on clinical experience.
4. Classes focused on detailed/concretely study on different type of reports (Pathology, Ultra sonography, X-rays, MRIs, Fibro scan etc.)
5. Classes focused on Interaction.
6. Classes focused on Practical knowledge.
7. Classes based on innovatory approach of diagnosis.
8. Classes based on Anatomy, physiology and their correlation with acupressure i.e. YNM mould.
9. Classes based all the branches of Acu therapy (TCM, Sujok, EAV, EOY, Ayurveda) in YNM mould.
10. Classes focused on case histories-based learning (protocols explanation)
11. Classes based on Minimum points with maximum benefits.

Subject	S. No.	Books	Detailed Syllabus :
	1.	Tripathga	1. Ch 3 - Electrolytes (Page 47-65) 2. Ch 11 – Yogic Yam-Niyam Meridian (Page 100-151) 3. Ch 15- Tripodic Disease Factors(Page 169-200)
	2.	Training Manual-1	Spine and clinical conditions) Page 1-42, 71-81
	3	Training Manual-2	Brain Anatomy-Radiological Diagnosis Page 1-36, 71-84 Study of eco Cardiography.
	4.	A Case manual YNM-3	Entire Book
	5	A Case manual YNM-4	Entire Book
	6	AHL Chart

Reference Books :

1. Ayurvedic Hand Book-1
2. Ayurvedic Hand Book-2
3. Ayurvedic Hand Book-3
4. Treatise-1

Project : Project is to be submitted by students before two months of exam. For appearing in exam, submission of Project is compulsory.

Teaching hours : 45 hours (Theory without practical including query session)